

TROOP 116 '08 PACKING LIST

WEAR YOUR CLASS 'A' UNIFORM TO GI JOE'S!

BEDDING

- Sleeping bag
- Sleeping pad & ?pillow

FOOD

- Sack lunch
- Snacks (easy on the sugar)
- Mess Kit – IMPORTANT!

NECESSITIES

- Water bottle or two
- Flashlight/batteries (or headlamp)
- Scout Handbook (in a zip lock bag)
- Outdoor essentials in a small pack (see back)
- Toilet paper in zip lock

CLOTHING (Pack for all weather)

- Coat, jacket and/or windbreaker
- Rain gear or poncho
- Backpack (for packing your gear)
- Hat & gloves
- Sweatshirt
- Socks & underwear
- Extra shoes (1 pair)
- Long pants (2 pairs)
- Shorts (2 pairs)
- Pajamas
- Boots (waterproof)
- Scout T-shirt (Class B)
- Clothes for trip home (Class 'B' uniform)

IMPORTANT STUFF IF NEEDED

- Medications (kept w/parent or adult in charge)
- Tools for braces
- Glasses
- Contact lens stuff

TOILETRIES

- Comb
- Toothbrush, toothpaste
- Soap, towel, washcloth
- Deodorant

OPTIONAL ITEMS

- Camera & batteries
- Sunglasses
- Sunscreen
- Leisure reading material

NO SMALL TOYS, GAMEBOYS, IPODS, etc.

EQUIPMENT FOR EACH PAIR OR GROUP OF SCOUTS (OR ADULTS)

- Tent
- Food for the weekend
- Washing up stuff
- Stove & fuel
- Cooking equipment
- Trash bag
- Dining shelter if needed

ADULTS ONLY

- Cell phone & 2 way radio
- Coffee mug mug with mess kit
- Camp chair?

This equipment list is meant to serve as a guide. Use your discretion in choosing what to bring and what to leave. Your clothing for the trip home should be Class 'B' uniform (Scout t-shirt). You might also pack these in a plastic bag to keep them fresh. The weather of course can be unpredictable, so pack accordingly and 'BE PREPARED'.

The Ten(nish) Essentials

Immediate Needs

- Emergency food
- Water

Exposure Control

- Raingear
- Extra clothes
- Space blanket

Survival

- Knife, blade 4" or under
- Waterproof matches & firestarter (ex. Vaseline-soaked cotton ball in a film container)
- Basic first aid kit, including moleskin
- 50' Rope

Rescue

- Compass
- Non-breakable signalling mirror
- Whistle
- Flashlight with extra bulb & batteries
- Map of the hike (you'll get this before you leave Joe's)

Troop 116 Additions

- Sunscreen
- Insect Repellent
- Hand Sanitizer
-